

Peer Review

Reviewer: _____

Paper for: _____

What do you like most about this paper?

Does the opening grab your attention? Can you tell what the focus of the paper will be? What could help?

What is the main focus of this paper? Do the points/paragraphs in the paper support the focus? Is there anything that is unnecessary?

Could the points in the paper be organized more clearly? How? Is there anything that is unnecessary and can be left out?

Do the paragraphs and points make sense? Are the transitions between paragraphs/points clear? Did you get lost at any point?

Has the writer used enough detail and examples in the essay, or are more needed in places?

Did the writer use quotes from the text effectively to make a point? Did they transition smoothly with the essay? Too wordy?

Was there anything confusing or vague in the writing?

Did you notice any grammar errors that should be looked at and/or corrected?